Indian Muslim children (Please find the original khutbah here: )First Sermon:Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar Kabira wa al Hamdu Lillahi Kathira, wa Subhana Allahi Bukratan wa Asila (Allah is the greatest- (said nine successive times) -and to Allah goes all praise.And Glory to Allah, eventide and in the morning).Whatever is in the heavens and earth pays tribute to Allah, and He is the Exalted in Might, the Wise. There is no deity save Allah, having no associates. He says, The seven heavens and the earth and whatever is in them exalt Him. And there is not a thing except that it exalts [Allah] by His praise, but you do not understand their [way of] exalting. Indeed, He is ever Forbearing and Forgiving.(Al Israa- 44).I also bear witness that Muhammad is His Servant and Messenger. May the peace and blessings of Allah be upon our Guide Muhammad, his family, his companions, and all those who will follow them in righteousness till the Day of Judgment.O Muslims,Today is the day of celebration, a day of delight and enjoyment and a time to show sincere obedience to Allah. It is the blessed Eid al Adha-the celebration of the sacrifice, one of the greatest days to Allah, about which our Prophet Muhammad pbuh said. The greatest day in Allahs sight is the day of sacrifice.Eids in Islam are unique for they come to bring joy to Muslims after having strived hard and succeeded in offering acts of worship. They are also some valuable occasions to thank Allah for His infallible pledge to forgive His believing servants faults. So today is the time for the great remission Allah, the Almighty, has promised His servants who headed to Haj or those who increased acts of worship on these days of Dhu al Hijja by, for example, fasting the Day of Arafat.O blessed those who have stood on the Mount of Arafat and came back from it with their sins expiated. On their way back to Al Masjid Al Haram, they would pass by Muzdalifa overwhelmed with Allahs Mercy. From there they would set out for Mina for stoning of the Jamarat and again for the Ancient House (Kaaba) to perform Tawaf.For every act they do, Pilgrims will have angels surrounding them and light shining on them, not to mention the limitless bounties they will get as recompense. Credit also goes to non-pilgrims who would choose to stand by their counterparts performing Haj by fasting and praying to Allah with great hope to receive His blessed forgiveness, satisfaction and guidance.Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, La Illaha Illa Allah (there is no deity except Allah), wa Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar wa Lillahi Al Hamd.O Believers,Takbir (pronouncement of Allah is the Greatest) is one of the Eid rituals with which Muslims would express their gratitude to their Lord for His favours on them on these blessed days and times. That is why our Prophet Muhammad pbuh recommended pronouncing Takbir after each obligatory prayer since the Day of Arafat until the sunset of the last days of Tashriq (11-12-13th of Dhu al-Hijja).Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, La Illaha Illa Allah, wa Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar wa Lillahi Al Hamd.Dear Muslims,Please remember that Eid days are moments for joy and celebration but also for Dhikr and Takbir. Abu Huraira, may Allah be satisfied with him, reported that the Prophet Muhammad pbuh sent Abdullah bin Hudhafa to Mina to convey his message: do not fast these days for they are the days of eating, drinking and remembering Allah.On these days, it is also highly recommended to honour ties of kinship, visit friends and neighbours and shake hands with people. By doing this, Muslims will be rewarded and have their sins removed, as our Prophet Muhammad pbuh said, Two Muslims will not meet and shake hands having their sins forgiven them before they separate. Allah has made for us these moments for showing joy and cherishing some good leisure times for the sake of remembering His bounties on us and bringing happiness to our family.In this regard, Aisha, may Allah be satisfied with her, said, Abu Bakr came to see me and I had two girls with me from among the girls of the Ansar and they were singing what the Ansar recited to one another at the Battle of Buaath. They were not, however, singing girls. Upon this Abu Bakr said protestingly, Musical instruments of Satan in the house of Allahs Apostle and this too on Eid day? Upon this the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said, Abu Bakr, every people have a festival and it is our festival (so let them play on).Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, La Illaha Illa Allah, wa Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar wa Lillahi Al Hamd.O Allah, we ask your favour to render all our days Eids and make the best of our days, the day when we meet You. O Allah, keep us in Your care and protect us. May Allah also help us to obey Him and those He has ordained upon us to obey.Download the sermon:In ArabicIn EnglishIn UrduThe khutbah for Eidul Adhaa can be downloaded here in English, Arabic and Urdu: Eid al Adha Khutbah inUAE Islamic Books Preview PDFEid ul Adha Khutbah also is known as the Festival of Sacrifice, Muslims will celebrate it in most countries on July 31. Muslims around the world are set to celebrate the annual festival of Eid al-Adha the Festival of Sacrifice which falls on the 10th day of Dhul Hijjah, the 12th and last month of the Muslim lunar calendar.The celebration of Eid al-Adha reminds us about the Hajj. It is the fifth pillar of Islam. Every single Muslim, who has the capability to perform Hajj, is obligated to do so, once in his or her lifetime. There are many pearls of wisdom behind the performance of Hajj. It does not only benefit the pilgrims for their spirituality, deen, and Hereafter but also for their social quality and the ummah as a whole.Eid ul Adha KhutbahAt least once, a Muslim will leave his or her village, travel to a land far from home, meeting people from all four corners of the world. This international vision of Hajj is important to shape a global mindset of Muslims, knowing that he or she is a part of a larger community. Remember what Mark Twain used to say, Travel is fatal to prejudice, bigotry, and narrow-mindedness, and many of our people need it solely on these accounts. Broad, wholesome, charitable views of men and things cannot be acquired by vegetating in one corner of the earth all ones lifetime.Eid ul Adha Kutab in Arabic Eidul Adha Kutab in ArabicEid ul Adha Kutab in English Eid ul Adha Kutab in EnglishDownload the Eid ul Adha Khutbah in PDF format using the link given below.Download Eid ul Adha Khutbah PDF Free Download0 ratings0% found this document useful (0 votes)36 viewsThe document contains the Arabic text and English translation of the khutbah or sermon for Eid al-Adha.
